

You can help shape the future of Twentynine Palms!

The City of Twentynine Palms is entering the middle of its redistricting process, which will determine how voters are represented by the City Council for the next 10 years. Participating in the redistricting process leads to a better understanding of community needs and lays the groundwork for achieving a strong collective voice.

Public Hearing #3: February 8, 2022 at 6:30 PM

Discuss and revise draft maps submitted by January 25 at 5 PM.

Deadline to Submit Draft Maps: February 23, 2022 at 5 PM

Submit your proposed map(s) for review/consideration at the fourth hearing.

Public Hearing #4: March 8, 2022 at 6:30 PM

Identify and adopt a preferred map and election sequencing.

Community members are encouraged to review draft maps at Draw29Palms.org/draft-maps/ and share their thoughts during the public hearings or by emailing redistricting@29palms.org. The City is encouraging residents to submit maps of their own neighborhood, propose a Council district or sketch an entire citywide map of 5 Council districts until the final deadline to submit maps.
